

Lupita's Immigration Story

By Luis Covarrubias

My name is Luis. I interviewed my mother.

My mom was born in a small town in the state of Zacatecas, Mexico. She remembers making good memories there. She was happy with her family, she lived with her 2 brothers and her sister. Their parents always gave them their necessities.

She had the opportunity to go to school, she became a teacher for special kids. One day she found Papa in the town fair. Later on they got married and then she wanted to leave her life in Mexico and start a new one in the U.S..

She did not have any problems traveling because she had her papers ready. When she arrived, Papa already had a home here to start a new family together. Their kids' names were Luis, Leonardo, Emily, and Carlos. And all their kids went to school.

Something I learned is sometimes you can have good days and you also sometimes have to leave your country.
